PETERSON'S LADIES' National Magazine.
MAGNIFICENT VOLUME FOR 1845.

EDITED BY MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS.

The Ladies' National Magazine, is now so well established and so favorably known, that, by general consent of the newspaper press, it is placed at the HEAD OF THE LADIES' BOOKS.

Its literary contents, like those of the three dollar Magazines, are all original, and from the most celebrated American writers of both sexes. The contributions to this periodical are a constant proof of the taste, and ability of our beloved countrywomen. No other magazine is so exclusively a mirror of their minds, or is so generally supported by them. The contents are of every variety, and while usually of the lighter kind, do not preclude the insertion of papers of a serious character. Fitted alike to the boudoir and the fireside, the "Ladies National," presents monthly an agreeable variety of domestic sketches, tales of fashionable life, romances of history, poems, critical notices of living authors, new receipts for the house-keeper, directions for fashionable embroidery, descriptions of the fashion in society, our eastern metropolis, musical intelligence, &c., &c., comprising, in short, all that a lady would wish to know of objects of interest transpiring during the month.

These contents, instead of being, like those of the other two dollar magazines, under any chiefly by selections from old newspapers and other second hand sources, are written expressly for us; so that our

CONTENTS ARE ALL ORIGINAL. As a guarantee of the style in which the literary department is conducted, the publisher has placed the editorial charge of the magazine in the hands of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, acknowledged by all critics to be, the best magazine writer of the world. Those who have read her thrilling stories of "Alice Copely," "Malina Gray," "Ann Taylor," and "Clara," need no proof of her exalted genius. She will be assisted by the strongest corps of contributors ever yet arrayed in the constant support of any ladies' Magazine. Ases of great historical interest, from the pen of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, which will be followed up by articles of equal interest, from H. W. Herbert, and others of our best writers. The critical portraits of female poets will still be continued, and stories of a domestic character, from the well known pen of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, and Ellen Ashton, will continually appear.

GREAT PICTURE GALLERY.—In order that the pictorial department may stand first in the country, the publisher intends publishing, in January and February, two superb premium pictures, far superior to any yet issued in the magazines. The first is:

A MEZZOTINT BY SARTIN, will appear in January, and has confessedly never been equalled by that inimitable artist. The second, to appear in February, is the first of a series of great historical pictures, which, to maintain the national character of his work—the publisher has projected. These are intended to illustrate great events in American annals, especially those in which women figured. The first is a MEZZOTINT OF WASHINGTON AT 18!

Engraved from a picture never before made public. This feature will make the book unequalled, and those who wish to secure the whole series must send their money early. We here state, what is undeniable, that during 1844, we published MEZZOTINTS OFTEN MORE THAN ANY RIVAL, and shall continue to do so for 1845. Those who subscribe to the "National" will get these unequalled engravings of free of charge in any other issue of the Magazine, November, December, January and February, we already have issued, or intend to issue, an unbroken series of these plates. Who else has done, or can do the same?

Gallery of Beauty.
The Gallery of American Beauty will be a feature of this book, in which will constantly appear portraits of the most beautiful of the sex. Another characteristic will be

AMERICAN LANDSCAPES.
The illustrations shall be executed by distinguished either for picturesque beauty or for historical associations.

The other illustrations shall be executed by the first American Artists, and be in every variety of style, viz: Line and Stipple Engraving; Colored Vignettes and Birds; Lace Work and other Pictures executed in Tint, Quatre's Superb Designs, &c.

In short every variety of embellishments, executed by the best artists, shall continue to grace our book. We shall be the first to seize the novelties of the day!

PARIS FASHIONS IN ADVANCE.
As elegance and economy in dress are equally desirable, we offer great inducements to country readers, in our monthly descriptions of the fashions, accompanied by our colored plates, which we give at least, two months in advance of every contemporary, being enabled to do this from correspondence in London and Paris. So completely have we outstripped all rivalry in this point, that the other magazines now only occasionally furnish the fashions. But as long as taste in dress is desirable, patterns of the latest mode will be indispensable to the sex, and in order that other illustrations may not have to give place for them, we shall publish

Our Fashion Plates Extra.
That we shall give as many embellishments as any other two dollar magazine and the fashion plates besides!

And in order that our lady subscribers may be acquainted with the novelties of the day, we shall publish, as soon as they come out, in our "Household Companion," new receipts in Cookery, new styles in Embroidery, new patterns for Lace Work &c.

THE TERMS.—The Cash system adopted and maintained by the publisher, enables him to offer a Magazine, in every respect equal to the old three dollar magazines at one-third less cost. The price of Peterson's National is therefore only TWO DOLLARS per annum, cash, in advance.

TO CLUBS.—In order to facilitate remittance, from post-towns where there is no local agent, the publisher offers the following terms to persons disposed to club, viz:
1 copy $2.00 per annum
3 copies $5.00 per annum
8 copies $10.00 per annum
17 copies $20.00 per annum
For $5.00 we will send one copy of the Saturday Courier and two copies of the "National."

This money must be current funds, and sent post paid in advance.

PREMIUMS.
To every Postmaster, or other person getting up a club, we will send our annual for 1845, or any of the new novels! For every $2.00 subscriber we will send, if required, a new novel. Or for every Club of 17, or two Clubs of 8, or for 3 Clubs of 3, we will send a copy of the Magazine gratis for one year.
